UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

Re: C13-4700 EMC Aylus v. Apple

Dear Counsel:

In cases assigned to a district judge, the parties may consent at any time to reassignment of the case to a magistrate judge for all purposes, including entry of final judgment. See Civil L.R. 73-19(b). Moreover, in those situations where the case was initially assigned to a district judge, the parties may stipulate to a specific magistrate judge to which the case may be assigned.

The Court urges all parties to give careful consideration to consenting to a magistrate judge. Magistrate judges are appointed by this Court through a vigorous merit selection process and are highly qualified judicial officers. A profile of each of the magistrate judge and a description of his and her legal background, experience and qualifications are contained in the brochure entitled "Consenting to a Magistrate Judge's Jurisdiction in the Northern District of California" available from the Courtroom Deputy, Betty Lee, or the Clerk's Office. A copy of this brochure can be downloaded from the court's website at: <http://www.cand.uscourts.gov>. The parties should consider the advantages of assignment to a magistrate judge, including their reduced caseloads and their ability to secure and insure firm hearing and trial dates in contrast to district judges who are obligated to give priority to criminal cases under the Speedy Trial Act.

Counsel is directed to share and discuss this information with their clients and to meet and confer with opposing counsel to discuss the option of consenting to magistrate judge to conduct all further proceedings in the instant action. For the parties' convenience, a consent form is attached hereto; forms are also available at <http://www.cand.uscourts.gov>, in the "Forms" section. Counsel shall sign and file the certification below that they have discussed the issue consent to a magistrate judge with their clients.
